

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I would receive 8-10 calls per week and now I receive none. I enjoy the peace and quiet during the evening. I pay for the phone and believe that I should not have to have my privacy invaded with unwanted calls and applaud Indiana's Telephone Privacy law as it stands.